

It is impossible to deny that we presently live in moments of global crisis... Samael Aun Weor analyzes the wide range of catastrophic problems now afflicting our planet, then proceeds to explain the cause and effect relationship these problems have with the psyche of this humanity. Far from a doom and gloom speech, this book instead presents a radical solution that any person can apply to their own life in order to initiate powerful change. The solution is the long sought after mystery of Tantra and its ability to transform the consciousness. Only on the path (based on tremendous, intimate super-efforts within ourselves) is it possible to develop all the marvelous, hidden potentialities of the human being.
