

Recent research reveals that most young people today are resistant to the church. It is a disturbing trend that calls for immediate pragmatic ways to tackle the issue. This trend is a reflection of our society. The problem is that today's kids are growing faster and becoming more sophisticated in life than the previous generation. The Church must be deliberate in reaching out to them if we want to keep them in the church. In this book you will learn how to:

- Reach the next generation for God
- How to build a family friendly Church
- Break the communication barriers with children
- Design ideal Children church ministry that is functional
