

Adela Najarro's Twice Told Over pushes across the borders of Latin-American poetry with a new eye. A woman's eye that develops a collection of poems that add weight with every page turn. She is warming, energetic, and never holds back without reason. Najarro delivers a fresh take on the supernatural-- her words spring off into borderlessness. - See more at: <http://www.unsolicitedpress.com/the-buzz#sthash.Vap7Spn5.dpuf>
